

Child and Family Outcomes	Home Visitation Intake interview – Conducted by Home Visitor	9 month home visit - Conducted by Home Visitor	Follow Up 12 months to Age 3 Evaluation Consultant	Follow Up Age 3 -5 Evaluation Consultant
Potential Indicators/ Areas of interest	Parental child Development knowledge. Intention to breast feed and knowledge of child nutrition Child Attachment status Provision of health insurance and medical home Knowledge of community resources and current involvement in community resources and activities Risks, strengths and basic needs of family Early learning and early literacy activities knowledge	Follow through on Breast feeding intentions. Child's eating habits and how the parent is encouraging healthy eating Child Attachment status Follow through on provision of health insurance and medical home Health, development and behavioral resources the family is using. Level of community involvement and in what kinds of activities or resources they are using in their community.	Health, development and behavioral resources the family is using. Child's eating habits and how the parent is encouraging healthy eating. Level of community involvement and in what kinds of activities or resources they are using in their community. Child Attachment status	Health, development and behavioral resources the family is using. Child's eating habits and how the parent is encouraging healthy eating. Level of community involvement and in what kinds of activities or resources they are using in their community. Involvement with Preschool/Kindergarten/ECE providers and extra curricular activities. Child Attachment status

	Community Outcomes	Policy Outcomes	Data System Outcomes	Workforce Development Outcomes
Potential Indicators/ Areas of interest	Sense of community and social connectedness Civic Engagement Resident/Institutional Partnerships Use of community resources and services Availability and use of parks and recreational areas Community mobilizing and place based activities Community self efficacy and advocacy activities Collaboration and integration of services within the community Financial resources secured through community fundraising efforts Community services and resources created or transformed	Community stakeholder and parental engagement in community advocacy or policy-related activities Community based policy related communications and data dissemination activities Community based policy outreach activities Community driven identification of issues that address needs of the community Community coalitions established	Use of Baby Registry within pilot community (families, resident groups, organizations, providers) Data system collaborations and resident groups/providers utilizing centralized case management and community data systems for data and evaluation	Organizations within the pilot community who adopt core competencies developed by Workforce Development contractor Impact of workforce development contractor/core competencies within the pilot community workforce