

Santa Monica College In Partnership with UCLA* Is offering ECE-31 (2 units)

COMMUNICATING WITH FAMILIES: WORKING WITH FAMILIES TO RECOGNIZE AND RESPOND TO DEVELOPMENTAL CONCERNS

* UCLA Center for Healthier Children Families and Communities

Where

Santa Monica College
Bundy Campus

3171 South Bundy Drive
Los Angeles, CA 90066-1016

Course Details

Day: Thursdays

Time: 6:30pm-9:35pm

Start Date: September 2nd 2010

Course Length: 12 weeks

Cost FREE!

(Materials included, space is limited)

For Information on How to Register Go To

<http://smc-ece31-ucla-edsi.eventbrite.com/>

or Contact Lydia Laddon

Phone (310) 434-4023 or via email at

LE_TERRY@SMC.EDU

Registration Hours:

10am-2pm, Monday-Friday

After 2pm: Please contact via e-mail

PRIORITY FOR THE CLASS GIVEN TO:

UCLA-EDSI ECE partners, STEP providers and ECE providers in Santa Monica

THIS CLASS OFFERS PRACTICAL SKILLS TO:

- Effectively communicate with families about development and developmental concerns
- Support families whose children need special attention
- Improve your capacity to refer families to appropriate developmental and behavioral services

• BENEFITS TO ECE PROFESSIONALS INCLUDE:

- Learn from a multi-disciplinary team of physician and developmental experts
- Gain practical strategies for talking with families about difficult topics
- Obtain professional growth hours
- Earn College Credit toward your AA degree

