

The Los Angeles Regional Network presents:

A free training on Latino health advocacy!

Have you ever...

- Wanted to work with legislators to improve the health of Latino communities?
- Wanted to voice your opinion or experience to decision-makers?
- Felt constrained by your tax status, government affiliation, or lobbying rules?
- Wanted to be more aware of what's going on in Sacramento?

If so, the next Los Angeles Regional Network meeting is for you! We'll train participants on advocacy strategies, learn more about the differences between education and lobbying, and work on concrete actions to improve Latino health.

2008 is more important than ever – the Governor and Legislature need to close a $15 billion gap in our state's budget. We need to be at the table, advocating for the health needs of Latinos from throughout the state!

When: July 28, from 8:30 to 11:45

Where: LA Care, 555 W. 5th Street, Los Angeles

What: training, discussion, and action! Free of charge.

ALL are welcome, but you must RSVP and bring ID to enter the building!

Put your knowledge into practice: Afterwards, we'll be visiting our Los Angeles legislators to tell them how this budget will affect the health of Latinos. Visits will be pre-scheduled and participants will divide into teams and go straight to visits.

For more information, or to RSVP, contact Vanessa Cajina, LCHC's Regional Networks Coordinator, at vcajina@lchc.org or call (916) 448-3234.

The Latino Coalition for a Healthy California (LCHC) is the only statewide organization dedicated to improving the health of Latinos through policy, education, and research. The Los Angeles Regional Network is a partnership of LCHC, Consejo de Federaciones Mexicanas en Norteamérica, and the Alliance for a Better Community. Members include a wide array of Latino community leaders, stakeholders, and experts. Join us to improve health and healthcare for Los Angeles Latinos!

Special thanks to our hosts at LA Care!

L.A. Care
HEALTH PLAN®