

ALL FAMILIES MATTER

Creating Safe and Welcoming Spaces for LGBT Parents and Their Children

A FREE Full-Day Training for Service Providers and Child Welfare Professionals

The L.A. Gay & Lesbian Center's Family Services Program is offering this unique training opportunity for service providers and child welfare professionals who work with children and families.

This training will focus on:

- Expanding the definition of family diversity to include lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) parented families
- How to be more welcoming and effective when providing services to LGBT parents and their children
- Presenting providers with the necessary tools and strategies to combat homophobia and transphobia, and promote diversity and inclusion throughout agencies' formal and informal practices

March 11, 2008

8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

The California Endowment
Center for Healthy Communities
1000 N. Alameda Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Training is FREE!
Continental
breakfast and lunch provided!

Space is limited. To RSVP, or for more information about the training, please contact Lisa White at 323-860-7342 or send e-mail to familyservices@lagaycenter.org.

Hosted by the L.A. Gay & Lesbian Center's Family Services Program.
Funded by First 5 LA for children 0-5 and their families.

